(c) if so, whether Government have issued any directives to public sector banks for disbursing loans to farmers without any delay; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M.V. CHANDRASHEKHAR MURTHY): (a) Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has reported that the amount of crop loan disbursed by all scheduled commercial banks in the country and in the State of Gujarat during the year ended June, 1992 for minor irrigation schemes was respectively Rs. 347.42 crores and Rs. 19.45 crores. The data for 1993 is not available.

(b) to (d) As per the guidelines issued by RBI to all public sector banks, all loan applications upto a credit limit of Rs. 25,000 should be disposed off within a fortnight and those over Rs. 25,000/- within 8 to 9 weeks. Branch Managers may be vested with discretionary powers to sanction proposals for loan from weaker sections without reference to higher authorities. Credit proposals from weaker sections are to be cleared promptly. Appropriate sanctioning powers have been delegated to the rural branch managers so that majority of loan applications are sanctioned at branch level itself. The banks are also required to maintain machinery at regional office level to look into complaints from the borrowers and to verify that the guidelines issued by RBI for lending to priority sectors are followed by the branches.
